DoorDash, a leading global platform for local commerce, today announced it has completed the acquisition of SevenRooms. The combination will help merchants grow in-store sales, strengthen customer relationships, and boost profitability by integrating SevenRooms' best-in-class CRM, reservations, as well as guest experience and marketing tools into the DoorDash Commerce Platform.

SevenRooms will continue to empower restaurants and hospitality operators to grow and deliver exceptional guest experiences, while gaining access to DoorDash's scale, resources, and global reach. SevenRooms leadership will join DoorDash to continue to build the SevenRooms offering.

"We're building a platform that makes it easier for local businesses to grow—whether that's through delivery, pickup, reservations, or in-person hospitality," said Parisa Sadrzadeh, VP of Strategy and Operations at DoorDash. "These capabilities reflect DoorDash's focus on empowering local businesses to deepen their relationships with customers, however they choose

"We're excited to accelerate our mission to help hospitality operators around the world understand their guests, build deeper relationships, and grow their businesses sustainably," said Joel Montaniel, Co-founder and Head of SevenRooms. "Together with DoorDash, we're providing restaurants and hospitality businesses with the tools to own their guest experience, grow their customer base, and thrive both inside and outside their four walls. With shared core values, we're energized for our shared future as we bring continued innovation to market faster through a merchant-centric approach."
