Resilience

Across the country, clean energy opportunities are reshaping how communities work, build, and grow. The Center launched the Main Street Goes Green Initiative to equip small businesses with tools to cut energy costs and strengthen their bottom line and help small contractors win bids in the clean energy economy.

Recovery

When disaster strikes, local economies depend on fast, fair, and community-centered recovery. This year, The Center partnered with LA County to deliver the Household Relief Grant Program for families impacted by the Eaton and Pacific Palisades fires. The program distributed $32M in critical finance assistance to help households stabilize and rebuild their lives.

Growth

Small businesses need tools that unlock new customers and new revenue. The Center's Digital Growth Accelerator did exactly that, guiding entrepreneurs through hands-on digital training to help them strengthen their brand and upgrade their online presence. Participants gained practical skills, one-on-one coaching, and access to digital solutions that support their long-term growth.
