Gold Member - ABA Partner Network
Member Since August 2021

Biz2X is a loan origination platform that equips your financial institution with flexible cloud technology to automate and modernize their lending operations. Biz2X delivers a configurable, low-code solution that adapts to each institution’s unique credit policies and workflows. The platform enables banks to increase productivity, improve the borrower experience, and scale their lending programs efficiently.

We enable banks to do more with less – faster loan decisions, better borrower experiences, and strong credit assessment.
