

FINTECH

‘Leave room for the little guys’: Square’s advice for PPP 2.0

By Penny Crosman

Published April 17, 2020, 1:13 p.m. EDT

Updated June 01, 2021, 2:05 p.m. EDT

5 Min Read

Online lenders, which were approved to make emergency government-backed loans to small businesses less than a week before the Paycheck Protection Program ran out of money, hope it will quickly get more funding so they can help steer relief to the smallest companies.

Already have an account? Log in

AMERICAN BANKER

Unlock this article and get unlimited access to American Banker.

- ✓ Unmatched news and analysis
- ✓ Original research reports
- ✓ Exclusive data programs
- ✓ On-demand thought leadership

Save up to 30% off

SUBSCRIBE NOW

Case Study ConnectOne Bank turns omnichannel account opening into growth

ConnectOne Bank unified retail and business account opening with MANTL, raised nearly $500 million in deposits, and cut opening time to seven minutes.

Penny Crosman

Executive Editor, Technology at Arizent

Penny Crosman is Executive Editor, Technology at American Banker. She is based in New York. She guides technology coverage at American Banker and... Read full bio

For reprint and licensing requests for this article, click here.

FINTECH MARKETPLACE LENDING DIGITAL BANKING BLOCK KABBAGE CORONAVIRUS
THE MOST POWERFUL WOMEN IN BANKING

RELATED

- 1 How to apply for the Best Places to Work in Fintech 2027
- 2 BVNK and Marqeta dangle a payments lure for stablecoins
- 3 What comes next for banks in a post-CLARITY Congress
- 4 State bank examiners get a playbook for inspecting AI
- 5 Under new CEO, Truist is exiting near-prime auto lending

MORE FROM AMERICAN BANKER

Five agencies say banks may accept mobile driver's licenses

FinCEN and four banking agencies cleared mobile driver's licenses for customer identification. The question is, can banks read them?

Sep 18, 2026

Subprime auto lender agrees to $710M settlement with states

Credit Acceptance Corp. has agreed to provide $710 million in restitution and debt relief to resolve allegations of predatory lending by 41 state attorneys general.

Sep 17, 2026

Banks shrug off impact of first rate hike in three years

Bankers are largely downplaying the impact of the Federal Reserve's interest rate increase. Some said this week that the quarter-point hike could be good for near-term profitability.

Sep 17, 2026

FDIC proposes faster merger reviews, preemption for state banks

A pair of proposals issued by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. Thursday would create new merger processing timelines and extend national-bank preemption to certain out-of-state, state chartered bank activities.

Sep 17, 2026

CFPB director-designate Brian Johnson clears Senate Banking

Brian Johnson's nomination to lead the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau advanced to the full Senate Thursday morning in a party-line vote.

Sep 17, 2026

Will Enova owe $5M fee after stall-out of Grasshopper deal?

Now that regulators have failed to approve a controversial merger deal, the question is whether the buyer will have to pay a hefty fee to the seller.

Sep 17, 2026

23RD ANNUAL THE MOST POWERFUL WOMEN IN BANKING

Meet The Most Powerful Women in Banking 2025, our annual ranking of the executives at the pinnacle of the industry.

Download the American Banker app

FOLLOW US

Subscription Options

Enterprise Subscriptions

Newsletters

My Membership

The Magazine

RSS Feed

About Us

Privacy Policy

AI Policy

Subscription Agreement

Content Licensing/Reprints

Advertising/Marketing Services

Banker's Glossary

Events

Resources

Help Center

Contact Us

© 2026 Arizent. All rights reserved.

Do Not Sell or Share My Personal Information