Bluevine Approved as Direct Lender for Paycheck Protection Program

We wanted to share the exciting news that we've been approved by the SBA and Treasury as a direct non-bank lender for the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP). We greatly look forward to working with the U.S. government on this important relief effort to provide small businesses with the capital they need.

Bluevine's PPP loan application is fast, convenient and will be available to all backgrounds and businesses, even if they haven't worked with Bluevine before. In addition, our entire process, including retrieving your loan number, is automated and online. Applying with Bluevine does not limit you from applying with other lenders and/or platforms.

We are eager to contribute our expertise and engineering resources to this crucial relief effort. Our only aim is to support and protect the millions of small businesses that we are proud to call our customers.
