THE DIFFERENCE

Partner with a Bank That Is as Creative and Flexible as You Are

Celtic brings regulatory expertise and proven strategies to address the multitude of risks specific to Fintech partnerships. We assist and support the buildout of a diverse array of custom financing products and drive compliance with applicable regulatory requirements, all while keeping pace with your go-to-market timeline.

We help boost customer loyalty and revenues by enabling you to offer flexible and dynamic financing solutions to fit your customers' needs.

Together, by merging the reliability of traditional banking with the innovative offerings of technology companies, we can build better products that help more people.

Together, We Can:

- Create and launch custom lending products
- Support other lenders or platforms with our resources
- Efficiently make changes to a loan program to meet partner, customer and regulatory changes
- Seamlessly and securely integrate with your existing systems
- Drive and support compliance with federal banking rules and regulations
