

Proposed Acquisition and Vendor Placing

Private biotech investing deep dive

Private biotech sits apart from traditional venture capital and growth equity for three key reasons. First, the potential for value creation is driven by clinical inflection points (scientific derisking) instead of revenue growth or operating scale. Second, outcomes at key readouts are often binary rather than incremental, producing wider dispersion. Finally, as private biotech companies are generally pre-revenue, they remain capital-dependent throughout their life cycle. We believe these features make the private biotech opportunity attractive for long-term investors.

Participation in, and principal terms of, the Placing

1. The Bookrunners are arranging the Placing severally, and not jointly, or jointly and severally, as agents of the Company. Participation in the Placing will only be available to persons who may lawfully participate by either of the Bookrunners. Each of the Bookrunners may itself agree to be a Placemate of the Placing Shares or may nominate any member of its group to do so.
2. The Bookbuilding, if successful, will establish a single price payable to the Bookrunners by the Company (the "Placing Price"). The number of Placing Shares and the Placing Price will be agreed (after consultation with the Company) following completion of the Bookbuilding. Subject to the Supplement, the Placing Price and the number of Placing Shares to be issued will be announced upon completion of the Bookbuilding via the Placing Results Announcement.
3. To bid in the Bookbuilding, prospective Placees should communicate their bid orally by telephone to the sales contact at Peel Hunt or Investec. Each bid should state the number of Placing Shares which the bidder wishes to subscribe for at either the Placing Price which is ultimately established by the Comparators or at prices up to a price limit specified in its bid. Bids may be scaled down by the Bookrunner. Investec reserves the right not to accept bids or to accept bids in part rather than in whole. The acceptance of bids will be at either Peel Hunt's or Investec's absolute discretion, subject to agreement with the Company.
4. The Bookbuilding is expected to close no later than 7.00 a.m. (GMT) on 12 February 2019 but may be extended at the discretion of the Bookrunners. The Bookrunners may, in agreement with the Company, accept bids after the Bookbuilding has closed. The Company reserves the right (upon the agreement of the Bookrunners) to issue a number of shares to be issued pursuant to the Placing, in its absolute discretion.
