Ramit Arora

PRESIDENT & CO-FOUNDER - BIZ2CREDIT & BIZ2X

One of America's leading experts in small business lending, Ramit heads Biz2Credit's credit and sales operations. With over a decade of experience in financial services at Citibank and Xerox, he brings deep expertise in risk management, credit analytics, and strategic growth. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Management and a Master's in Accounting.

In 2007, Ramit co-founded Biz2Credit alongside his brother Rohit with a singular mission: make business finance work better. Today, the platform has facilitated over $10 billion in funding for thousands of small businesses across the United States.

Ramit regularly meets with top executives from the Federal Reserve and the Small Business Administration to provide guidance on trends shaping the small business market. In 2011, he and his brother Rohit were named New York City's "Top Entrepreneurs" by Crain's New York Business, which also named Biz2Credit among NYC's "Fast 50" of 2014.
