Office of Disaster Recovery and Resilience

The Office of Disaster Recovery and Resilience's mission is to provide low-interest disaster loans.

Help us improve

Mission statement

The mission of the Office of Disaster Recovery and Resilience is to connect individuals, businesses, and private non-profits with SBA disaster assistance programs and improve disaster recovery outcomes and economic resilience by helping communities prepare for, respond to, recover from, and mitigate against disasters of all types.

About our office

The Office of Disaster Recovery and Resilience provides low interest federal disaster loans to individuals, businesses, and private non-profit organizations after a disaster. Our office dedicated to helping communities prepare for, respond to, recover from, and mitigate disasters while supporting economic resilience. SBA loans help eligible small businesses and private nonprofits cover operating expenses after a disaster, which is crucial for their recovery. These loans not only help business owners get back on their feet but also play a key role in sustaining local economies in the aftermath of a disaster.
